❧ BRIEF HISTORY OF KATWA ❧

Katwa is a subdivisional town in the district of Purba Bardhaman, West Bengal. The area has a rural charm and natural beauty, but many trading and other business activities have made it clumsy and congested. It is a good middle class residential area. This small town has a historical background of five hundred years. The earliest name of Katwa was "INDRANI PARGANA." Later the name was changed to "KANTAK NAGAR" and became the fort area of the Murshid Kuli Khan, Nawab of Bengal. Katwa was invaded by the Bargis several times. This was the place, where Sri Sri Chaitanya Mahaprabhu got "DEEKSHA" from Sri Iswarpuri. Since then, this small township has been a sacred place for the Vaishnavites. Katwa has a glorious heritage of its own by virtue of its being associated with the birthplace of the great sons of India, namely Baishnab Kabi Jnandas, Krishnadas and Narottam Das, Kabi-Shekhara Kalidas Roy, Pally Kabi Kumud Ranjan Mallick and Great Kabi Kashiram Das.

❧ GEOGRAPHY OF KATWA ❧

It is situated on the confluence of the rivers Ajay and Bhagirathi (a branch of the river Ganges) and thus the east, west and north of the town get bounded by waterbody. It is at the eastern end of the district and 150 km. away from Kolkata and 56 km. from Burdwan Town. The climate is similar to the rest of Gangetic West Bengal. One can have a good feel of all the six seasons. Katwa, a town at the North-East corner of Purba Bardhaman District, is in a way, the gate-way to three districts viz. Nadia, Murshidabad and Birbhum. Katwa is connected by railway from Howrah to North Bengal and presently it is connected with Burdwan and Ahamedpur (Birbhum) through broad gauge.

❧ CULTURAL / FESTIVAL OF KATWA ❧

Durga Puja is widely celebrated here, but Katwa is more famous for its traditional KARTICK PUJA which is rather known as "KARTICK LADAI." The whole town becomes gorgeous with decorated pandals and different idols of gods and goddesses including the main idol of god Kartick in each and every street. The celebration is not restricted to the townsfolk. People come in large numbers from neighbouring villages. The entire atmosphere reveals that of a carnival. Apart from this all the other local festivals are celebrated widely. The Saraswati Puja organised by Katwa College is another main attraction. Every year "Book Fair" is organised by the local Book Fair Committee. Local people show great interest towards this fair. During winter time, Drama Festivals and Competitions are organised by different local clubs and organisations. Also, different cultural events take place in Sanhati Mancha and Rabidndra Parishad.

HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

The establishment of Katwa College as an institution of Higher Education was the offshoot of a relentless effort by a few acclaimed social leaders of Katwa like Late Sri Jitendra Nath Mitra, Prof. P.N. Mukherjee, Prof. S.M. Banerjee, Dr. P.N. Bandyopadhyay, Prof. S.P. Mukherjee, Sri Anadi Mukherjee and Dr. Haramohan Singha along with other eminent local dignitaries. Even renowned Bengali poets, namely Late Sri Kalidas Ray and Sri Kumud Ranjan Mallick had come forward in support of the effort. Their sincere and indefatigable efforts took on a tangible form with the inauguration of the College on 16th August, 1948.

The College, since its inception, just a year after India achieved its freedom, committed itself to the task of spreading education in a semi-rural agro-based area which did not have a single higher educational Institution within about 50 kms. Later on, as time progressed, the mission and vision changed with the increasing need of the time. An exclusive girls' section was opened to bestow education of girls coming from relatively conservative backgrounds.

Since the college is placed in a semi-rural location, we have the opportunity to serve the rural community as well. The rural extension work of the college is carried out by the student members of the National Service Scheme of Katwa College (3 units).

The college accommodates thousands of first-generation learners from the economically background sections of the rural and semi-rural population. Katwa College is the only college in the sub-division which offers Honours in Science stream. The college offers Honours courses in Arts stream in various subjects as well in the Commerce stream.

There is a considerable minority population in the districts referred to above. The College tries to attract students from the minority communities as far as possible. The college endeavors to inculcate communal harmony among the learners by organising Saraswati Puja as well as observing Navi Diwas (in commemoration of Prophet Mohammad for promotion of intercommunity harmony).

The students at the beginning mainly came from the literate families of the twin townships of Katwa and Dainhat, the latter hosting the oldest municipality in West Bengal. The vision of the college gradually changed with time, especially with the spreading literacy mission all over West Bengal starting from the early 1980s. The students of the rural hinterland of Katwa came under the purview of education and they aspired to reach the College for higher education. So the College adopted an inclusive approach through expanding the scope of education to further areas beyond the immediate rural belt surrounding the townships. Thus, the college ventures to accommodate students from as many as the four districts, to acknowledge the collective aspiration of the prospective students from this rural belt for social identity. Simultaneously the college maintained that the students coming from the SC/ST and minority communities of this belt get active patronage through accommodation in the College. By the end of the last millennium, Bengal perceived a new feature; first generation learners started abounding in the state. This rise in the numbers of the first-generation learners became a salient feature in the rural belt mentioned earlier. This resulted in continual rise in the intake of students in the college. The College was and is still trying its level best to cater higher education to this increasing mass of aspiring students.

“Talk to yourself at least once in a day. Otherwise, you may miss a meeting with an EXCELLENT person in this World.”

"আমি হিন্দু" "আমি মুসলমান" একথা শুনতে শুনতে কান ঝালাপালা হয়ে গেল। কিন্তু "আমি মানুষ" একথা কাহাকেও বলতে শুনি না। যারা মানুষ নয়, তারা হিন্দু হোক আর মুসলমান হোক, তাদের দিয়ে জগতের কোন লাভ নেই।"
